Dear Valued Customer,

In order to continue to maintain a high standard of service for our clients, Hamburg Süd will introduce a “General Rate Increase” (GRI) on its Southbound South East Asian Trade to Australia with effect from 15th December 2009.

From 15th December 2009 all outward shipments with origin in South East Asia to ports and points in Australia will levy an increase of US$250/TEU and US$500/FEU for both dry and refrigerated cargo in the base ocean freight. This increase will apply in full on top of existing ongoing market rates and will be subject to accessorial surcharges applicable at the time of shipment.

The General Rate Increase will be applied for all cargo with on-board date of 15th December 2009 and onwards.
